KITCHEN BRUSHES.

They Should Be Numerous and Should Be Properly Kept.

Every kitchen should be liberally supplied with brushes. There should be a scrub brush for the vegetables, a larger scrub brush for the floor and one for the sink and another for the stove.

A four handled, soft, broad paint brush will be found a great convenience, as it can be used for dusting cupboard drawers and shelves. A narrower, smaller soft brush should be kept for brushing flour from biscuits, cookies, pies, etc.

What to do with the brushes is another question which haunts the careful housewife. If they are left in the sink they are always water soaked; if they hang against the wall their drippings leave ugly streaks upon the woodwork; if they are thrown promiscuously into a drawer they are likely to make a sorry looking drawer. For keeping the stove brush and the other scrubbing brushes for cleaning purposes a zinc lined drawer six or eight inches deep, can be fitted under one end of the sink. The zinc drawer can be kept clean and wholesome, as it can be washed frequently and after a wash will be as clean as if new. For the scrubber brushes those used in freeing the food from flour marks and those used in cleaning vegetables an ordinary wooden drawer will suffice. It is always well, however, to line all drawers in which are kept articles used about the food with clean wrapping paper, which can easily be removed frequently and replaced.

BREATHE HEALING BALSAMS

Hyomei's Novel Way of Curing Catarrh—Sturm & Co. Guarantee a Cure.

The novel treatment for catarrh consists of a hard rubber inhaler of a size convenient to be carried in the vest pocket or purse, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. By its use it is possible to breathe while at home or at work, air which is almost identical with that of the mountains or health resorts where the air is laden with healing and health giving balsams.

No other medicine gives such prompt relief as Hyomei in the treatment of catarrh. The first breath soothes and heals the irritated and smarting air passages, and its regular use for a few days or weeks will cure the most stubborn cases.

Sturm & Co. will sell a Hyomei outfit with their personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure for $1.00. You run no risk whatever in buying Hyomei, for your word decides the question as to whether you pay for the remedy or not.

The Uncertain World.

"This is the most uncertain world that ever I wuz in!" said the deacon.

"You think so?"
"I know it. Only the other day the parson sighted a hurricane fur 'er an' run ter a storm pit an' pulled the lid on 'er—what do you reckon happened?"

"The Lord knows."
"Hurricane changed its mind—turned into a earthquake an' come mighty nigh swallowed him whole!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Flowers and Blood.

A superstition dating from older times exists to the effect that roses and flowers generally attain greater beauty in soil fertilized by blood, especially by human blood, than elsewhere. Persons who have visited Newmarket, England, know of the so called "bloody flower of Newmarket," which is found nowhere else than in the old moat, now filled up, and in which, according to tradition, a very large quantity of human remains is interred. These flowers bloom in June and July and by the bloodlike hue of their blossoms suggest the name which has been given to them.

Modesty.

Modesty is one of the sweetest and most desirable qualities one can possess, and yet too much modesty hinders advancement. When this quality is overdeveloped it antagonizes aggressiveness, without which no great success can be attained.

Mrs. Chas. Beach, of Pitt St., New Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "For three months I had rheumatism in a very severe form. My feet were so badly swollen that they felt as if I were standing on needles. Could walk only with great difficulty and severe pain. The pain was so severe as to give me many sleepless hours at night. I was a great sufferer. Could find no relief until I took LIFE PLANT. Two bottles cured me. I cannot say too much for it."

The Stocking Problem.

Keeping down the stocking basket is the problem which confronts the woman who has to do the darning for a family. If there are small boys with a fondness for playing marbles and climbing fences she will find her ink-bones much lessened if she gives up darning altogether and takes to mending instead. The tops of half worn stockings similar to those in use should be put away for this purpose. From these pieces matching in grain may be placed under incorrigible holes, the edges trimmed away and the goring neatly made by what is known as "casimers" darning. When properly done it is almost impossible to detect the repaired place.

Too Precocious.

The Maiden Governess—What year is it called when February has twenty nine days? Little Elsie—Leap year. The Maiden Governess—Correct. And how often does leap year come? (No answer.) Why, Elsie, I'm surprised at your not knowing that. Little Elsie—Oh, I haven't reached the age where I keep track of leap years!—Brooklyn Eagle.

Launch Room Cheats.

"There is not much use trying to have restaurant petty cheats arrested," said the manager of a lunch room in the busy downtown district of New York. "It is too much bother to go to court to appear against them, and we never get the money anyway. As a rule, cheats eat only a small amount, less than 50 cents' worth. The head waiter and the waiter have signals by which they can generally size a man up. They know in a minute whether a customer has really come away from the office without his money or is only bluffing."

"But there is one kind of cheat we are all down on, and we'll put him in the cooler overnight every time we catch him. I mean the man who sits at a table, eats 40 or 50 cents' worth of roast or entree and then stops at the bar counter on his way out for a piece of pie and a cup of coffee. When he comes to the cashier's desk he presents nothing but the fifteen cent check for the pie and coffee. The only thing we can do is to make an example of a chap of that kind when we catch him."

A GRAND POPULAR PAGEANT.

Including Oriental Spectacles and Historic and Pyrotechnic Displays.
The Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers Indian Shows, whose holiday date at Clarksburg is fixed for Thursday, September 8, invite critic and general attention to their new feature free street parade. Beside the standard gay, glittering and spectacular pageant offerings characteristic of the bigger circuses there are announced uncommon pompous and historical additions, among which the Oriental and military sections will command unusual attention and are striking innovations. The former is a regally majestic and rich reproduction of the recent gorgeous State Durbar at Delhi, in which the native princes, potentates and other notabilities of all India received and did homage to the British Viceroy, making the occasion one of indescribable ostentations and lavish display of priceless jewels and costumes. The show in question has the huge elephants, superb horses, costly trappings, people and paraphernalia requisite to appropriately perpetuate the event. In the military section of the parade will be found matter of unusual and striking interest; our country's martial progress, from Bunker Hill to Santiago, being illustrated and symbolized by the appearance of representatives, armed and costumed exactly as were the heroes who fought under Washington, Scott, Taylor, Lee, Grant and Miles. After the morning parade a free display of Japanese daylight fireworks will be given on the show grounds, during which, discharged from thundering mortars, will float, sail and dive skyward the huge and most strangely grotesque similitudes of fabulous monsters, dragons, sprites and Arabian Nights' fantasies, accompanied by pyrotechnic rainbows and wonderful wreaths of smoke.

Why Popcorn Pops. The department of agriculture answers the question, which was propounded to it by a small boy. Popcorn pops by reason of the volatilization of the oil contained in the kernel by heat. Field corn does not pop because the outer portion of the kernel is more porous, permitting the escape of the oil as it volatilizes, while in the case of popcorn a great pressure is developed in the kernel by the confined oil and the kernel is suddenly exploded and turned wrong side out.—Boston Herald.

All She Wanted.
"She's a lovely girl and so simple in her tastes. I told her that I didn't much of an income yet, but that I hoped I could provide for her every want."
"And what did she say?"
"She said that would be all she could ask."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The invitation to be happy is extended to us all, but that we may be happy we must be kind.—Schoolmaster.

taffeta silks, 59c

You so often find advertising promises more than stores perform that you likely often doubt the inducement in a modest moderate statement. In that way you may be wrong, but we shan't go into hysterics to convince you. You will find it all out in time—maybe too late for the particular thing you are looking for—but you'll find it out and then it will do you good ever after. Ad do the store more good than extravagant overstatement.

Instance:—We made (for us) a rather strong statement of plain black and colored taffeta silks, for silk shirt waist suits at 59c a yard. The fall line is in now and want you to see them—compare with the $1.00 and $1.25 qualities advertised at 69c and 79c elsewhere, and draw your own conclusions. These silks at 59c are far, far better than the advertisement ever intimated. Bought direct, as low as 'tis possible to buy silks, and priced on a low profit basis.

peau de crepe silks, 98c

For fashionable wear this fall the silk shirt waist suit predominates, ask to see the Peau de Crepe Silks for suits, rich finish, blues and browns particularly—but some other colors.

good shoes

Everything about a shoe has to be right or it's all wrong. Good leather—good workmanship—then style. Style is important, but style in a poorly-made shoe of poor stock isn't worth anything. Yet a good many shoes are sold on appearance. We sell shoes on merit. Ask attention now to a showing of oxfords at prices $1.50 to $2.50 formerly selling $2 to $3.50, that will convince you, the more carefully you examine, that we're giving you more real worth at the respective prices than generally sold. Look at the P. S. Co. Oxfords $3.00, and see shoe merit of a high order—tan Russia leather, black kid and patent kid. Sorosis Shoes and Oxfords $3.50. All sorts of good shoes for children—girls, boys and babies.
